England's Coast is a one-stop-shop for domestic and international visitors to create their perfect holiday on the coast.

With inspirational video and content, consumers and trade can book directly with more than 2,300 coastal businesses listed on England's Coast.

Our social media channels see consistent growth, with more than 140,000 followers on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter in French, German, Dutch, Italian and Spanish plus English.

Our monthly consumer newsletters reach more than 12,000 readers in the UK, Netherlands and Germany with a growing audience.

England's Coast is a not-for-profit organisation supporting the visitor economy on the coast.

A COAST FOR ALL...

Throughout the year we will run a rolling programme of national activity, building on the Year of the Coast legacy. Partners can be featured in a series of digital campaigns, driving visits for spring, autumn and winter, each one with a landing page giving compelling reasons to visit. Download the toolkit here.

Thematic blogs focusing on the region's USPs such as nature, outdoor pursuits, food and drink, will also be used for press releases, sent to national media and to VisitBritain's European offices.

Inclusion in the 2024 Events calendar means your events reach consumers, journalists and international visitors in one glance, a 'what's happening on the coast' promotion.

COAST TO COAST

From John O'Groats to Land's End via the White Cliffs of Dover, Britain's 11,073-mile coastline offers beautiful - and bracing! - walks (englandscoast.com). Often overlooked, the Yorkshire Coast boasts bustling harbours, iconic chippies and heritage towns. David Hockney drew much of his inspiration from the undulating landscapes of the Yorkshire Wolds and a new 79-mile National Trail has been launched to celebrate it. The Wander art trail (visitstoyorkshire.co.uk) starts on the banks of the Humber and finishes on the Flay Brigg headland, with public art installations and benches etched with site-specific poetry along the way. Stay at Highfield House (thehighfieldhouse.com; rooms from £160 a night) in Driffield, a 15-minute drive from the trail.

BOARDING PASS FOR ONE

According to Norwegian Cruise Line (NCL), 37% of us prefer to travel alone (see page 170 to read how liberating it can be). NCL was the first cruise line to introduce studio cabins for solo travellers and a studio lounge they can socialise in. Its new Prima-class ship Norwegian Viva launches this summer with studios from £2,200pp for a seven-day Med cruise (ncl.com).

ROOM WITH A VIEW

Three luxury cabins have opened overlooking southwestern Norway's Lysefjord. The architecturally unique StarLodges (theboldzero.com; from £320 a night) have lounges with panoramic views, so you'll feel as if you're floating in the clouds above the water below. Fly to Stavanger, a 45-minute drive away, with Norwegian (norwegian.com; from £49.90pp one-way).

HOLIDAY SOUNDS

Dreaming of sunshine? Jo Whitley will take you to the Caribbean on Virgin Atlantic's new audio series, Sandscapes, available for free on Spotify. Each Sandscape will transport you (virtually) to one of the world's most picturesque locations, with sounds of waves and wildlife. Want to go for real? Virgin Atlantic (virginatlantic.com) is offering a new twice-weekly route to Turks and Caicos from 15 November, from £589pp return.
